

Christine Goulais, CEO, Nbisiing Power

Christine Goulais is a proud member of Nipissing First Nation, which is located on the north shore of Lake Nipissing in Ontario. Christine has established a consulting and advisory business focused on supporting Indigenous communities in the areas of strategic policy, economic development, energy and self-governance.

Christine is the Chief Executive Officer of Nbisiing Power, an Electrical Equipment reseller created through a limited partnership, majority owned by Nipissing First Nation, with Composite Power Group Inc. Christine was instrumental in facilitating this partnership and is committed to supporting the growth of this new business in Nipissing First Nation.

Christine has 15 years of experience in government and corporate environments focused on Indigenous relations, including 10 years with Hydro One. Christine prioritizes collaborative, respectful, and mutually beneficial relationships with Indigenous communities across Ontario, and is proud of the relationships she has fostered with Indigenous leadership and community members.

Christine lives in her home community of Nipissing First Nation where she enjoys fishing, watching her Children play hockey, and spending time with her family and friends.
