

SEAN TUTAK

SENIOR MANAGER INDIGENOUS RELATIONS

Sean Tutak joined the Hydro One team in January of 2023 as the Senior Manager of Indigenous Relations, Major Capital Projects.

In his role, Sean is responsible to negotiate and implement Hydro One's First Nation 50-50 Equity Partnership model and has been instrumental in working with Hydro One's First Nation partners to advance a portfolio of large-scale transmission projects across Ontario.

Sean joined Hydro One after fifteen years as a leader within the Ontario and Federal Public Services, where he led and was involved in the development of wide array of policy and legislation, the advancement of land claim and mediated negotiations/settlements and in overseeing numerous engagement and consultation processes.

Sean is Haudenosaunee and a proud member of Tyendinaga First Nation and father of two young daughters. In his spare time, Sean enjoys woodworking and spending time at his cabin in Bancroft.

